

WELCOME TO VALLE CAMONICA

The Valley of Landmarks

Known worldwide for its rock art, recognised as World Heritage Site by Unesco, Valle Camonica has always been synonym with Culture, Art and History. In addition to the invaluable archaeological heritage of Roman Age, the very beautiful churches frescoed by great artists of the Renaissance, the numerous medieval villages and castles, and an operative museum system, Valle Camonica also means Nature and Sport, thanks to the presence of important Ski areas, the cycle track along the Oglio River and the numerous routes for mountain bike, in a diversified landscape, from the glacier to the lake, characterized by 55% of protected surface, kept by the Nature Network of Valle Camonica, where the Parks of Adamello and Stelvio stand out, allowing for countless outdoor hikes. But Valle Camonica is also Wellbeing, in the modern spas of Boario and Angolo, and Flavours thanks to a rich basket of typical products and recipes from the Camunian tradition.

*Valle Camonica is a land of tales: for thousands of years men left here,
on the stone of these mountains,
the mark of their presence,
of a passage,
a meeting.*

ARTISANS DO IT BETTER

Beautiful Details...

When packing, do not forget to put a sweater and an umbrella in your luggage! Weather is usually hot in the summer, but the month of July can be stormy and your hostel is in Ono San Pietro, a very small and nice village at the foot of the mountain Concarena, which makes it quite cold at night.

Take sneakers with you: the rock sites and the artisans' labs you will visit require you to be comfortable at walking.

The summer season is usually intense in Valle Camonica: festivals, music concerts, outdoor sports competitions add beauty to the enchanted mountains all around you.

You should then not get surprised that thousands of years ago these places were chosen by the ancient Camunian people for their engravings on the rocks: unforgettable marks that are still there for us to get to know their stories!
